Columbus to Host 91st Annual American Legion Mid-Year Conference

Lincoln (January 3, 2024) – The American Legion, American Legion Auxiliary, Sons of The American Legion, and American Legion Riders will be conducting their 91st Annual Mid-Year Conference at the Holiday Inn located at 110 2nd Avenue in Kearney.

There will be presentations from the national and state American Legion to educate its members on the importance of resolutions in our organization. In addition, booths and displays will be set up in the hall and American Legion Family members will be available to answer questions.

All wartime veterans are invited to stop by the Conference and learn more information about The American Legion and the opportunities that it offers. Sessions will be conducted Saturday, January 20 from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm and Sunday, January 21 from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm.

The American Legion is dedicated to the motto of “Veterans Strengthening America.” Chartered by Congress in 1919, The American Legion is committed to mentoring youth and sponsoring wholesome community programs, advocating patriotism and honor, promoting a strong national security, and continued devotion to servicemembers and veterans. Legionnaires in more than 12,500 posts across the nation and regions overseas serve their communities with a devotion to mutual helpfulness.
